SKYDMORES/ SCUDAMORES OF THRUXTON, ABENHALL, HENTLAND (HEREFORDSHIRE), & INCLUDING GALLATIN CO., ILLINOIS, & also PRINCE GEORGE’S COUNTY, MARYLAND.

edited by Linda Moffatt © from the original work of Warren Skidmore

Preface

This work was originally published in book form as part of Thirty Generations of The Scudamore/Skidmore Family in England and America by Warren Skidmore, and revised and sold on CD in 2006. I have extracted from this large work those sections on the early families in Herefordshire and divided these between three files, all available on the website of the Skidmore/ Scudamore One-Name Study.

In keeping with his wishes, the original text and format used by Warren Skidmore have been retained, apart from

- the addition of code numbers assigned to each male head of household, allowing cross-reference to other information in the databases of the Skidmore/ Scudamore One-Name Study.

- In line with the policy of the Skidmore/ Scudamore One-Name Study, details of individuals born within approximately the last 100 years are not placed on the Internet without express permission of descendants. Hence, recent descendants who appeared in the original Thirty Generations book do not appear here. This is signified in italics. I am happy, however, to include in subsequent revisions any biographical detail with permission of descendants, who may contact me at the email address below.

- I have used italics where I have made additions or alterations to Warren Skidmore's text.

THRUXTON, HEREFORDSHIRE

John (Jenkin) Skydmore, of KENTCHURCH, HEREFORDSHIRE, (ROW [6], noticed elsewhere1), was living in 1405 and possibly as late as 6 July 1407. His heir was Sir John Skydmore, Knight, of Kentchurch (ROW [10]), who in 1431 held (among other lands) 1/4 of a knight’s fee in Thruuxton which in time past had belonged to Amicia Bluet, and 1/8 of a fee in Kingstone. After his death in or about 1435 his lands went to his heir, another Sir John Skydmore, of Kentchurch (ROW [15]), who held several manors and land in Herefordshire and Gloucestershire. He died before 3 May 1475 devising by his will (now lost) Thruuxton and Brytt (now Bridge) Court in Kingstone to his youngest son Richard Skydmore.

TXN [1]. RICHARD SKYDMORE (SCUDAMORE), of the Grove near Lower Hergest and Thruuxton (the youngest son of Sir John Skydmore of Kentchurch by his wife Blanche ap Harry), is first noticed on 29 May 1460 as Richard Skydmore, of Grove, when he and Richard Acton, of Crowle, Worcestershire, stood surety for Thomas Fitz Harry who had been granted custodianship of Marden (“Mawerden”) manor which had been lately forfeited by Richard, duke of York, through high treason, insurrection and rebellion. On 22 September 1461 Richard Scudamore and Thomas Bromwich, as feoffees of the lord of How Caple, presented John ap Howell to the benefice there. He inherited Thruuxton and Bridge Court by the will of his father in 1475, and was in all probability living in 1489. He married (according to the Llyr Baglan, and another traditional pedigree) Jane, daughter of Richard Monington of Brinsop, Herefordshire, and had issue, 1. Richard, his heir, of whom further.

2. 1. (perhaps) Blanche, who married (his 1st wife) John ap William Vaughan (living 1517-8), of Llanrothal [She may have been the daughter of Richard Scudamore, the younger].

The son

TXN [2]. RICHARD SCUDAMORE, of Thruuxton, called “the younger” when on 14 October 1489 he was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of his uncle, Henry Scudamore, as High Sheriff of Herefordshire who had just died. He is doubtless the man of his name who was Mayor of Hereford in 1499. He married 1stly Maud, the daughter of David Allen, and 2ndly Cecelia (who survived him), the widow of Philip Vaughan, of Tyle-glas, Newton, Breconshire, and daughter of Jevan Gam, of Newton (in Welsh Trenewith) near Brecon. He died on 26 January 1510/11, seized of Thruuxton valued at £10 by the year, and Bridge (Brytt) Court. Henry Monington, doubtless a kinsman, was first among the jurors at the inquest post mortem taken at Hereford on 25 October 1511. Had issue by his first wife, 1. JOHN, his heir, of whom further.

4. 2. HENRY, his eventual heir, of Huntsham in Goodrich, of whom later.

2. Joan, who married before 11 November 1511 Philip ap Rees (Philpot Price), of Old Court, Orcop. She is almost certainly to be identified as Jonette Scudamore, of Orcop, whose will is dated 29 October 1550. In her will she leaves bequests to her grandsons Roger Pye and Lewis Gilbert, each of whom she calls her nephew (common usage for grandson in that period), as well as to other members of the Pye and Gilbert families. She appointed Thomas Gilbert (her son-in-law) her executor. Among the witnesses are Walter Pye, gentleman (also her son-in-law), and Philip Scudamore, a distant kinsman. She died shortly afterwards leaving issue,

1. Margaret Price, who married Walter Pye of the Mynde (died November 1575). She was living at Orcop on 25 May 1584.

2. Anne Price, who married Thomas Gilbert, of Ewyas Harold. She was living at Orcop on 25 May 1584 and was a recusant there in 1592.

The elder son

TXN [3]. JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Thruuxton, was born about 1480 (aged 30 or more at his father’s death). He was one of the jurors at the inquest post mortem held at Hereford on 26 October 1523 of Richard Monington of Westhide who had died the year before. In 1532 (or the following year) he sued Monning West hide who had held the manor of Thruuxton and 400 acres of meadow and pasture at Bridge Court in Kingstone. He contributed a harness [body armour] for one man at the muster of Herefordshire in 1539. He married 1stly ___________, and 2ndly Anne (living his widow at Hereford in 1559), daughter of John Bygges, and died shortly after 1 October 1557 having had issue by his first wife, 1. WILLIAM, his heir, of whom further.

1. Alice, who married ___________ Forest, and was living a widow in 1558.

2. Anne, who married Thomas Scudamore, of the Helme, EWYAS HAROLD (ROW [42], noticed elsewhere). He was a distant kinsman, the great-grandson of Nicholas Scudamore, of Rowlstone (ROW [14]). Their posterity seems to have been the eventual heirs to Thruxton.

3. Blanche who married _______ Price. They were both living in 1558.

The son, TXN [5]. WILLIAM SCUDAMORE, of Thruxton, is mentioned in the will of Richard Monington, of Westhide, dated 8 August 1551 (who leaves him a cow and 26sh 8d in money). He married, probably in or after June 1557 (post nuptial settlement dated 1 October 1557), Jane (died about March 1558), daughter of John Harford, of Bosbury. His will, dated 16 September (proved 12 December) 1558, mentions, among others, his step-mother Anne, his sisters Alice, Anne, and Blanche, and his “base” brother William. He died on 21 September 1558 leaving issue an only son.

JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Thruxton, born in March 1558 (aged 9 months on 4 January 1558/9 when an inquest post mortem was taken on his father’s lands). The inquest mentions a number of details that shed light on the events that befell the Thruxton family at this time. The presence of John Scudamore of Kentchurch and John Scudamore (of Holme Lacy presumably) among those who were appointed to hold the enquiry perhaps reflects their interest for the welfare of their less fortunate kin. At some unspecified date John Scudamore leased Thruxton and other lands to Anthony Harford and Thomas Cave, of Mather, Monmouthshire. He married Mary (who survived him and married 2ndly James Garnon, and 3rdly William Parry), daughter of James Baskerville, of Kyre Park, Worcestershire. He died without issue, an intestate, at Thruxton and was buried there on 20 February 1590/1 (admons of his estate was granted to his widow on 25 February of that year).

Some thirty or so years after the death of John Scudamore, Thruxton passed to the Gunter family, possibly through Humphrey Scudamore (ROW [55] died 1617) of EWYAS HAROLD (noticed elsewhere). Humphrey, as a son of William Scudamore’s sister Anne, was John’s first cousin. Humphrey Scudamore died without issue and Lewis Gunter of Howton, his cousin, was the executor and largest beneficiary of his will. On 28 July 1591, following the death of John Scudamore, Humphrey was granted the administration of the estate of William Scudamore on the grounds that he was his nearest kin and that the original executor, John Harford (who died on 30 August 1559), had not fully administered. Gunter, an attorney and of Breconshire stock, is still called “of Howton” in 1621 but was in possession of Thruxton at his death in 1630.

Following the death of John Scudamore in 1591 the representation of the family passed to the posterity of, TXN [4]. HENRY SCUDAMORE, of Huntsham (in Goodrich), the 2nd son of Richard Scudamore by his wife Maud Allen. He was adult by 12 July 1504 when he and John ap Harry were given a power of attorney by Sir George Neville, lord of Ewyas Harold, to deliver seisin of lands in Kentchurch to his kinsman James Scudamore. On 7 October 1527 Henry Scudamore and Lewis ap Jenkin of Ross had a grant of a holding called Knappes Messuage and a parcel of land called Bedowas in Orcop from Henry’s brother-in-law, Philip ap Rees. He had settled in Huntsham by 1543, or perhaps earlier, where he acquired extensive lands held by copyhold from the Earl of Shrewsbury. On 29 January 1549/50 Thomas Philpot appeared at the manorial court at Goodrich and testified that Henry Scudamore was old and infirm and that he ought to be essoined; whereupon his son Thomas pledged himself and was put in his place. His will dated 18 April 1552 mentions his wife Jane, his sons Thomas and William, and his daughters Joan and Margaret. He died before 23 July of that year (the date of the admons on his estate), leaving issue,

7. 1. JOHN, of Bagwy Llydiart, in Orcop, of whom further.
8. 2. THOMAS GWatKyn, of whom further.

3. William, of Goodrich. In 1542 he is noticed in the muster of the county as an able man fit to make a billman. He was living in 1552 when he is devised a barn lying at the end of the chapel in Huntsham and a sum of money in his father’s will.

1. Joan, living in 1552.
2. Margaret, living a spinster at Goodrich as late as 1 September 1582 according to the Court Rolls of that place.

The eldest son, TXN [7]. JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Bagwy Llydiart, in Orcop. He may have been the man of his name (called “of Orcop”) whose association in 1524 and 1527 with Katherine, daughter of Richard ap Jenkyn of Orcop, is recorded in the Court Books of the Bishops of Hereford. In the muster of 1542 he is recorded as an able man fit to make an archer for the defence of the county. He is mentioned from 1541 to 1543 in the Court Rolls of Goodrich, and he may possibly have been living as late as November 1578 when a John Scudamore of Bagalidiatt is named in the will of Richard Roberts of Altlbough. He had issue according to a traditional pedigree in the Llyfr Baglan.
1. William, of Orcop, who was living in 1570-1 when he and Barbara ________ are mentioned in the Consistory Court Books.

10. WATKIN (WALTER), of whom further.

The 2nd son, TXN [10], WALTER SKIDMORE, was born in the 1540's at Orcop, Herefordshire and was later a yeoman at Fernhurst, Sussex. He was living as late as 30 May 1604 when he was a juror at the Assizes sitting at Eastbourne, Sussex. He married 1stly ________ by whom he had issue,

1. Robert, eldest son, baptized 5 November 1569, a yeoman at Midhurst, Sussex, where he had the lease of certain chantry lands at Goldhorde in 1611. He married Anne Albury (who survived him). His will is dated 10 August 1621 (proved 22 October 1621 at Prerogative Court of Canterbury) and remembers his two brothers and two sisters (and their families) and left benefactions to the churches of Midhurst, Fernhurst, and Cocking in Sussex, and Haslemere and Thursley in Surrey. No issue.

12. THOMAS, of whom further.

13. Richard, baptized 28 December 1576. He is probably the man of his name who had five children baptized at Fareham, Hampshire.
   1. William, baptized 13 October 1605.
   2. Richard, baptized 24 January 1620/1.
   3. Ellen, baptized 24 May 1607.
   2. Anne, baptized 24 August 1609.
   3. Anne, baptized 3 December 1618.

14. JOHN, of whom further.
   1. Joan, baptized 2 February 1577/8. She married Thomas Heather on 6 November 1603 at Clanfield, Hampshire, and was living in 1621 when she is remembered in the will of her brother Robert.
   2. Alice, baptized 19 April 1582. She was living unmarried in 1621 when she had the profits from lands at Goldhorde (in Midhurst) according to the terms of the will of her brother Robert.

Mr. Skidmore married 2ndly Alice Chalcroft on 2 July 1582 at Lodsworth, Sussex, by whom he had,
   3. Elizabeth, baptized 4 July 1585 at Fernhurst.
   5. Ellen, baptized 10 July 1590.

He married 3rdly Agnes Hartley in 1596 at Fernhurst.

The 2nd son of Walter Skidmore, TXN [12], THOMAS SKIDMORE, baptized 1 December 1573 at Fernhurst. He married Joan Broman on 21 October 1599 at Clanfield, Hampshire. He was living in 1621 when he is named in his will of his brother Robert.

He had three children christened at Fernhurst, but the birth of his older children will probably be found elsewhere. Had issue, probably with others, [see Notes on p.9].
   1. Hugh, baptized 14 June 1610.
   2. George, baptized 3 May 1615.
   3. Anthony, baptized 26 September 1621.

The 4th son of Walter Skidmore by an unknown wife, TXN [14], JOHN SKIDMORE, baptized 5 August 1580. He married Joan Hartley on 22 July 1606 at Fernhurst.

He had his brother Robert's lands at Haslemere and Thursley subject to an annuity to be paid to his sister-in-law Anne during her lifetime. Had issue,
   1. Thomas baptized 26 April 1609 at Haslemere, Surrey. Probably died young.
   1. Agnes, baptized 6 September 1607 at Fernhurst. She was living, a minor, in 1621 when she was an heir to certain rents at Midhurst in the will of her uncle Robert. She married Laurence Gibbens in 1627 at Fernhurst.
   2. (probably) Mary, baptized 26 June 1614 at Fareham, Hampshire.

The 2nd son of Henry Scudamore of Huntsham by his wife Jane, TXN [8], THOMAS GWATKYN SCUDAMORE, of Huntsham, married Mary (or Marian) ________ and died soon after his father and before 1 December 1557 when it was found at a court held for Goodrich that a heriot of a bay horse and a red bullock (worth 20sh each) was owed at his death to the lord of the manor. On 28 August 1559 his widow settled all her lands in Huntsham on Thomas Philpot of Marstow (and his son John) for the benefit of her three minor children. Had issue,

11. LEWIS, his heir, of whom further.
   2. John (Reverend), who was presented as Rector of Tretire in 1586 [a living then in the gift of James Scudamore (died 1597) of that place, his kinsman]. On 2 June 1562 he had certain lands in Llangarron by a fine from Richard Taylor and his wife Jane and was buried at Tretire on 8
March 1600/1. His will, dated 26 October 1600, nominates his brothers Lewis and Richard as his executors and co-heirs.

3. Richard, of Tretire and Everston in Peterstow. His name appears on the lists of jurors at the courts held for Goodrich from 1579. He appears as an attorney at the courts to at least 1613. On 20 October 1596 he had a grant of two messuages at Everston and Lower House (at The Common) in Peterstow from Richard Vaughan the elder, of Ruxton, and his two sons. It is not presently known when he died, but he may have died before his brother Lewis.

1. Joan, born before 15 April 1552 when she is mentioned in the will of her grandfather. She married at Goodrich on 11 February 1576/7 William Boughan (died in January 1619/20) and may have been the lady of her name who was buried at Goodrich on 24 February 1625/6.

2. (perhaps) Margaret, who married, at Goodrich on 3 May 1591, Richard Were, and was buried there on 14 November 1624.

The eldest son,

TXN [11]. LEWIS SCUDAMORE, of Huntsham, born about 1540. He married at Goodrich on 27 June 1575, Alice Hannis (buried his widow at Goodrich on 2 March 1632/3). On 16 January 1586/7, Lewis and Alice Scudamore (then called of Kentchurch) granted to Thomas Coningsby and Thomas Lyngen (both of Hampton Court) a messuage (or manor) called Worrothe Court (perhaps now known as White Rocks) in Kentchurch and Garway. On 26 March 1599 George Scudamore, of Bolston near Holme Lacy (a distant kinsman) leased lands lying between Staunton, Gloucestershire, and Huntsham to Lewis. He was buried at Goodrich on 6 January 1612/3, having had issue,

15. 1. THOMAS, his heir, of whom further.
2. Margaret, baptized at Tretire 18 October 1591, her uncle the Reverend John Scudamore performing the ceremony.

The son,

TXN [15]. THOMAS SCUDAMORE, of Peterstow and Huntsham. He married (pre-nuptial settlement dated 10 April 1604) Margaret (buried 5 March 1659/60 at Goodrich), a daughter of John and Bridget Wyllym of Lyston in Llanwarne. On 31 August 1613, Thomas and Margaret Scudamore (already called “of Huntsham”) leased their lands at Everston and elsewhere in Peterstow to the Powells of Pengethley. Thomas is mentioned regularly in the court rolls of Goodrich from 1613 and thereafter. He died at Huntsham at an advanced age and was buried at Goodrich on 28 March 1670, having had issue,

18. 1. Henry (a twin), baptized at Peterstow on 19 July 1606, buried there on 2 August of the same year.
2. John (a twin), baptized at Peterstow on 19 July 1606, buried there on 2 August of the same year.
3. RICHARD, his heir, of whom further.
4. John, baptized at Peterstow on 16 November 1613, who died without issue.
5. George, baptized at Goodrich on 17 February 1618/9.
1. Bridget, baptized at Peterstow on 23 August 1607. She married Philip Davis at Goodrich on 12 May 1649.
2. Alice, baptized at Goodrich on 2 April 1616.

The eldest surviving son,

TXN [18]. RICHARD SCUDAMORE, of Huntsham, baptized 7 March 1609/10 at Peterstow. He married 5 August 1632, at Goodrich, Eleanor (buried there on 11 January 1686/7), a daughter of Roger and Eleanor White, of Goodrich. He was assessed at Huntsham (with his father) in 1663 and taxed on two hearths in 1665. He was a churchwarden at Goodrich in 1670, and left a will dated 6 February 1686/7. He was buried at Goodrich on 20 February 1689/90, having had issue (baptized at Goodrich with perhaps the exception of his youngest son),

20. 1. John, of Huntsham, baptized at Goodrich 13 October 1633. On 13 May 1683 he was presented before the Consistory Court of the Bishop of Hereford as an “obstinate Quaker”. He married, 29 March 1687, at the Ross Monthly Meeting, Mary (who survived him and married 2ndly on 6 February 1710/11 at Bosbury Philip Wanklyn who was a churchwarden at Goodrich in 1721), daughter of William Fisher of Ross-on-Wye. On 14 November 1705 (the same day that he signed his will) he made a separate settlement on Nicholas Fisher and Joseph Cowles for the benefit of his minor son John. His will of that day confirms Huntsham to his son and gives legacies of £80 each to his four daughters as they came of age. He was buried at Ross-on-Wye on 11 February 1705/6 having had issue,
1. William, born 28 November 1687, who died on 12 May 1688.
2. John, the only surviving son, born 31 March 1695, who was buried at Ross-on-Wye on 11 November 1709.
3. Mary, born 25 February 1689, married (by 1715) William Meende, of
2. Margaret, born 25 November 1690. She married (licence 14 August 1721) at St. Bartholomew-the-Less, London, Edward Ball, of Soho, a staymaker. [See also Hannah, below.]
4. Hannah, born about 1698. She married _______ Poulton, of St. James’, Garlickhithe, London. She was living his widow in 1759. [Margaret and Hannah Scudamore were baptized at Goodrich on 25 January 1712/3, presumably indicating their allegiance to the Church of England from that time.]

The family estate in Huntsham later passed to the Vaughans of Courtfield in Welsh Bicknor presumably by purchase.

21. 2. Roger, baptized 1 April 1638, who married Elizabeth Mildmay at Monmouth on 27 July 1668. He possibly became a Quaker as did his elder brother, John. He is not remembered in his father’s will and may have died before him, although elsewhere it is said that he died in Ireland about 1695. Had issue,
   1. Richard, born 1669, who, with his brother and sisters, is named in the will of their grandfather who left them £10 each. It is presumed that he died before 1710.

24. 2. James, of Huntsham, born 7 January 1674. He married in 1700, or thereabouts, Catherine _______. The transcripts of the registers of Goodrich record his baptism on 20 September 1701, from which it may be inferred that he left the Quakers. About 1711 James entered into a law suit against his aunt Mary Wanklyn (and her daughters) about the right of inheritance to his grandfather’s estate. He claimed that he was the surviving male heir and that his grandfather had entailed the estate on the male line. The suit continued in Chancery for several years and clearly must have proved costly. (The outcome, one would assume, did not go in his favor.) Had issue, the six eldest children christened at Goodrich,
   1. Thomas, baptized 8 August 1703, buried 12 August.
   2. James, baptized 7 January 1704/5.
   4. John, baptized at St. Weonards, 30 January 1714/5.
   1. Eleanor, baptized 31 December 1700.
   2. Mary, baptized 29 June 1707.

In the absence of information regarding the descendants of his elder brother, Roger Scudamore (TXN [21]), the representation of the family is presumed to have passed to the posterity of James the 3rd son of Richard Scudamore (TXN [18]).

   1. Elizabeth, born 13 November 1670, at Monmouth.
   2. Jane, born 23 May 1672.

22. 3. JAMES, of English Bicknor, Gloucestershire, of whom further.
23. 4. Thomas, of Ross-on-Wye, baptized 2 March 1643/4. He married 1stly Martha _______ (buried at Ross-on-Wye on 8 February 1681/2), by whom he had issue (baptized at Goodrich and named in their grandfather’s will),
   1. John, baptized 20 April 1671.
   2. Richard, baptized 31 March 1674.
   1. Martha, baptized 5 October 1672.

Thomas Scudamore married 2ndly at Ross-on-Wye on 17 April 1683 Sarah Maddocks (buried there on 13 November 1701). He was buried at Ross-on-Wye on 28 November 1709, having had issue by her (christened at Ross-on-Wye),

26. 3. William, of Ross-on-Wye, baptized 4 May 1684, who was also named in his grandfather’s will. He married 1stly on 4 November 1703 at Ross-on-Wye, Eleanor Bennet (buried there on 24 June 1714), by whom he had issue (christened at Ross-on-Wye),

29. 1. William, baptized 9 September 1711. He married 1stly at Ross-on-Wye on 13 February 1737/8, Emelia Bumford, by whom he had issue a son, William, baptized at Ross-on-Wye 11 November 1739.
He married 2ndly on 24 May 1748 at Ross-on-Wye, Sarah Keyse. It is possible that he and Sarah moved from Ross-on-Wye to live elsewhere (perhaps to Hereford?).
1. Elizabeth, baptized 1 October 1704.
2. Sarah, baptized 8 December 1706. She married Thomas Palmer on 18 November 1733 at Ross-on-Wye.
3. Mary, baptized 12 December 1708.
William Scudamore married 2ndly on 5 August 1714, Elizabeth Merrick (buried at Ross-on-Wye on 7 January 1720/1), by whom he had issue, a daughter,
William Scudamore married 3rdly at Ross-on-Wye on 15 June 1721, Mary Price (buried at Ross-on-Wye on 21 December 1737). He died and was buried at Ross-on-Wye on 22 April 1761.
2. Grace, baptized 7 March 1685/6, who died young and was buried at Ross-on-Wye on 24 Mary 1690.
3. Grace, baptized 8 January 1692/3.
5. William, of Goodrich, born about 1650. He was churchwarden at Goodrich with Peter Pridmore (1684) and with John Miles (1694). He was joint executor with his sister Mary of his father’s will. Unmarried, he was buried at Goodrich on 16 February 1715/6.
1. Mary, baptized 22 December 1635, who never married and was buried at Goodrich on 20 April 1713.
2. Eleanor, baptized 26 April 1685.
2. Mary, baptized 21 September 1686, married at Walford on 6 August 1706 James Jones and had issue.

The 3rd son of Richard Scudamore by his wife Eleanor White, TXN [22]. JAMES SCUDAMORE, of English Bicknor, Gloucestershire, baptized at Goodrich 3 October 1641. He married at English Bicknor on 10 April 1684 Mary (born 1657, buried there on 26 December 1707), a daughter of John and Mary Godwin of that place. On 13 April 1687 James Scudamore of English Bicknor, and his younger brothers, Thomas and William, came to a court held for Goodrich and released their interest in Huntsham, by an indenture, to John and Mary Scudamore and two other trustees. James was buried at English Bicknor on 3 April 1726, having had issue (christened there),
25. 1. GODWIN, of English Bicknor and Mitcheldean, Gloucestershire, his heir, of whom further.
2. Richard, baptized 17 March 1695, who died young and was buried at English Bicknor on 17 April 1713.
1. Eleanor, baptized 26 April 1685.
2. Mary, baptized 21 September 1686, married at Walford on 6 August 1706 James Jones and had issue.

The elder son, TXN [25]. GODWIN SCUDAMORE, of English Bicknor and Mitcheldean, Gloucestershire, baptized 23 September 1690. He married at English Bicknor on 22 May 1727 Elizabeth Potter (born 1701, buried at Abenhall, Gloucestershire, on 29 March 1774). On 2 February 1753 Godwin and Elizabeth Scudamore purchased a messuage and half an acre of land in Mitcheldean called Cawndedge or Scult’s House (probably in the vicinity of the present Cornage Farm), adjoining Lining Wood just within the parish of East Dean, from William Philips of The Lea, Herefordshire. On 12 December 1754 they purchased a small holding of about 13 acres near Sollers Hope, Herefordshire, from Mark Watkins of Longhope. Mr. Scudamore died on 12 March 1778 aged 87 (although the inscription on the family tomb in Abenhall churchyard states that he was aged 93) and was buried at Abenhall two days later. Had issue, ABL[1] 1. JOHN, of Mitcheldean and Abenhall, his heir, ancestor to the family at ABENHALL, GLOUCESTERSHIRE (see p.17).
TXN [28] 2. RICHARD, of Longhope, of whom further.

The younger son, TXN [28]. RICHARD SCUDAMORE, of Longhope, Gloucestershire, baptized 2 February 1731/2. He married at Brockhampton in Woolhope, Herefordshire, on 21 June 1770 Ann Legeyt (who survived her husband and married 2ndly (licence) at Abenhall on 14 July 1776 John Knight Hayward). Mr. Scudamore died when he was only 40 years old and was buried at Longhope on 6 September 1772. In his will, dated 16 May (proved 22 September) 1772, he gives bequests to his brother John and to his nephews John and Richard Scudamore, and leaves his real and personal estate, including land, barns and premises called Leynes (probably the present Laine’s Farm near Lea Line) to his wife. He appoints his brother John the guardian of his child (or children) should his wife marry again. It appears that Richard Scudamore had an only son.

31. 1. RICHARD SCUDAMORE, baptized at Longhope 28 May 1771. He married (licence) at Abenhall on 20 June 1795 Lettice (baptized at Linton, near Ross-on-Wye, 10 August 1772), daughter of John and Sarah Bonnor of Linton. It seems likely that Richard and Lettice moved from the Forest of Dean and probably settled in Cardiff where their posterity eventually resided. Had issue,
   1. John, baptized at Mitchelldean 29 September 1801. Mr. Scudamore married although the name of his wife is not presently known. He was a widower in April 1851 (called John Skidmore (LM)) when the census returns for that year were taken; he was then living with his brother-in-law and sister, Bartholomew and Sarah McLeod and their family, at 68 Great Frederick Street, Cardiff. In the return Mr. Scudamore is stated as being a coach painter. He may have been the man of his name who was accidentally drowned by falling into the West Beck Docks, Cardiff, on 4 November 1858 described as a Dock Constable. It is not known if John Scudamore had children.

35. 2. RICHARD, of Cardiff, of whom further.
   1. Anne Hayward, baptized at Abenhall 18 May 1796.
   2. Sarah, baptized at Mitchelldean 7 October 1803, married Bartholomew McLeod, a tailor, on 4 May 1829 at Bedminster, Bristol. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod were living with their four children in Great Frederick Street, Cardiff, in 1851.

The younger son,

TXN [35] RICHARD SCUDAMORE, of Cardiff, Glamorgan, baptized at Mitchelldean 21 July 1805. He married Mary Emanuel (born 1805, who survived her husband and died in 1882) on 8 June 1828 at St. Paul’s, Bristol. Mr. Scudamore was a pilot based at the Bute Dock. He died at Cardiff on 8 May 1879, admons being granted to his son John Bonnor Scudamore on 3 August 1883. Had issue (born at Cardiff, baptised at St John and St Mary, Cardiff),

45. 1. Richard, of Cardiff, born 1835, baptised 9 October 1836. He married at Swansea parish church, 2 June 1857, Harriet (who survived her husband and married 2ndly at Cardiff on 21 May 1866 John Louis Heins, a widower and shipping agent), a daughter of James Harris. Mr. Scudamore, a mariner and pilot, died in his father’s lifetime on 19 February 1862, admons being granted to his widow on 8 March of that year. Had issue,
   1. Richard, born 1858, who died in infancy the following year, aged 11 months at South William Street, buried 24 May at St Mary’s, Amanusdown Cemetery.
   2. John, born 1860, who died in infancy the same year, buried 19 October.
   3. Richard Roberts, born 1861, who died in infancy the following year, at 6 months, buried 5 February.

2. John, baptised 9 April 1837, who died an infant on 3 March 1840.

3. JOHN BONNOR, of Cardiff, of whom further.

4. William Hayward, born 1845, who died in infancy the following year aged 16 months, buried at St John’s on 19 June, of Bute Docks.
   1. Lettice, baptised 29 May 1829. She married David Roberts at St John’s, Cardiff on 6 April 1848.
   2. Mary Ann, baptised 11 November 1832. She married Samuel Sage (born 1838), a master mariner, at St. Mary’s, Cardiff, on 11 November 1863.
   3. Sarah, baptised 17 March 1839, who died in infancy in 1841 died at Bridge Street aged 2 years, buried at St John’s 24 October.
   4. Louisa, baptised 9 May 1841. She married John Wedge in 1864.
   5. Mary, born 1847, who died in infancy in 1849.

The 3rd son,

TXN [46] JOHN BONNOR SCUDAMORE, of Cardiff, born 1 March 1843, baptised 2 April. He was married at Brislington, Somerset, (near Bristol) in 1869 to Sarah Jane Baker (born 1845, who survived her husband and died in 1930). Mr. and Mrs. Scudamore were living at 5 South William Street, Cardiff, with their family in 1881. Mr. Scudamore, an accountant, died in 1914 aged 71, buried 1 August at St Mary’s, Whitchurch,
Glamorgan, having had issue,

1. John Wedge (a twin), born 1869, who appears not to have married and who died at Carmarthen in 1908.
2. Richard (a twin), born 1869, who died in infancy in 1871.

RUPERT STANHOPE, of Cardiff, of whom further.

Richard Edgar, baptised 20 March 1872, who died in infancy the following year.

Richard Edgar, born 1878. He married at Cardiff on 3 January 1903 to Martha (born 1882, who died in 1914), daughter of William Edward Kenny. An electrical engineer at a colliery in New Tredegar, he enlisted on 1 February 1916 and was assigned in September 1917 to Unit 352 (H.S.) Works Company of the Labour Corps in Ripon, transferring to Catterick two months later. Then a widower, he gave his daughter Doris Scudamore of Hengoed, Monmouthshire, as next of kin. He was sent to France in July 1919 and was finally demobbed in April 1920.

Mr. Scudamore died in 1951, having had issue,

1. Doris Martha, born 3 April 1903. She was married in 1952 to Gilbert Sefton.
2. Mary Agnes, born 12 May 1904, who died in infancy the same year.

Ralph Roberts, of Pontypridd, Glamorgan, born 1883. He married in 1911 at Cardiff, Lucy M. B. Randall (who survived her husband and married 2ndly in 1928, Robert H. Pritchard). Mr. Scudamore died in 1926, leaving issue,

1. John Bonnor, born 1914. He married in 1936, Doris D. Price (who survived her husband and married 2ndly in 1945, Harry Hargreaves). He served with a Parachute Regiment in World War II. Shortly after the end of the war, in 1945, he was training a squad of young men when his parachute failed to open and he was killed. Had issue, two sons.
2. Roy William, of Rugby, South Africa, born 1918. His enjoyment of music led him to join the Royal Naval School of Music at the age of 14, in 1932. He served for 16 years with the Band of the Royal Marines. After his discharge, in 1948, he entered the civil service at Llanishen, South Glamorgan, where he stayed for 18 years before being transferred to Slough, Berkshire. In 1972 he and his wife and son emigrated to South Africa. He married 1stly on 30 April 1942 Noreen Gough (who died in 1948), and 2ndly in 1949 Anastasia ____ by whom he has issue a son.

Mary Louise, born 1873. Unmarried in 1901.

Florence May, born 1876. She married Arthur Edwin Gulston, a tailor (born 1874-75 in Ireland) in Cardiff in 1899 and was living at 26 Hanover Street, Canton, Cardiff in 1901.

The 3rd son,

RUPERT STANHOPE SCUDAMORE, of Cardiff, born 1871. He married at Keynsham, Somerset, in 1903, Margaret Gardner (born April 1879, who survived her husband and died at Cardiff in 1967). Mr. Scudamore died in 1920, having had issue,

1. RUPERT KENNETH, of whom further.
3. Ethel Frances, born 1905. She married in 1934.
4. Constance Madge, of Rumney, Cardiff, born 1915. She married 1stly in 1941 Laurence G. Watkins, and 2ndly in 1950 John G. Cattley (both marriages were dissolved). She died on 15 June 1986.

The only son,

RUPERT KENNETH SCUDAMORE, born 1908. He married in 1939 Marjorie Edith Curle (born 6 June 1913, died in 1985) by whom he had issue, 3 sons.

2 Lance Corporal Scudamore's war records indicate that when in France he was assigned 'for exhumation work'. After the war, certain parts of the battlefields were taped out into grids and searched at least six times. This activity went on well into the 1920's, on a large scale. The remains would then be taken to one of the cemeteries that was open for burial. Thus, many of the small wartime burial plots were expanded with the post-war additions; indeed, many bodies were exhumed from small cemeteries and concentrated into larger ones. Those remains that could not be identified were buried as an unknown soldier.

The admons of RICHARD SKIDMORE of Hentland, Herefordshire, was given at the Prerogative Court of Canterbury on 2 August 1660 to LODOVICK (LEWIS) SKIDMORE, his brother. Lewis Skidmore was not assessed in Herefordshire in 1663 and perhaps lived elsewhere.

SIBYL SCUDAMORE was buried 4 February 1681/2 at Goodrich, Herefordshire.

Fernhurst notes

JOHN SKIDMORE was a customary tenant in 1543 at Reigate, Surrey, where he held four acres of meadow called Ashtridge Mead worth 8sh 4d by the year. [Rent Roll from the Ashtridge Manor Accounts.]

TXN [16]. THOMAS SKIDMORE, a blacksmith, married Joan Collins on 3 October 1624 at Fernhurst and was living at that place at the time of the Protestation Return of 1642. He died in 1670 (will dated 25 August, proved 8 September) and his widow Joan a little later in the same year (will dated 5 December, proved 14 January 1670/1). Had issue, perhaps with others, christened at Fernhurst,

1. Joan, baptized 3 June 1625. She married William Osborne on 7 January 1646 at Fernhurst.
2. Mary, baptized 21 May 1630. She married Edward Lindley in 1622 at St. Mary Stoke Newington, London and was remembered (with her sons Thomas and Edward Lingley) in her father's will dated 25 August 1670.
3. Elizabeth, baptized 7 September 1642. She married 1stly William Tribe on 10 November 1666 at Fernhurst and was named executrix and residuary heir of her mother on 5 December 1670.

TXN [17]. JOHN SKIDMORE married Elizabeth __________. He was a churchwarden at Fernhurst in 1642. He had died before 1 January 1659/60 at Fernhurst, the day that his widow married 2ndly Nicholas Swann. The admons on his estate was granted in 1662 the Consistory Court at Chichester to Elizabeth Swann alias Skidmore. The following, christened at Haslemere, Surrey, may be part of his issue,

2. Dorothy, baptized 25 February 1624/5.

ELIZABETH, daughter of JOHN and ELIZABETH SKIDMORE, was baptized 4 May 1646 at Fernhurst.

JANE SKIDMORE married Henry Stouall on 17 October 1664 at Thursley, Surrey.
PRINCE GEORGE’S COUNTY, MARYLAND

Baldwin Skidmore, the ancestor of a large family found later at Alexandria, Virginia and in the District of Columbia, was born on 2 June 1721 and baptized on 16 June in London as the son of Edward and Elizabeth (_______) Skidmore at St. James, Westminster. While the immediate ancestry of his father Edward is unknown, a DNA sample submitted by a descendant shows that this family came anciently out of Thruxton, Herefordshire possibly with a longer interlude in London or one of the home counties.

TXN [27]. EDWARD SCUDAMORE married Elizabeth Mason, by licence, on 11 September 1720 at St James, Clerkenwell, London. He is presumably the Edward Skudamore who was buried at St James Piccadilly, Westminster in 1737.

TXN [30]. BALDWIN SKIDMORE, born on 2 June 1721 in London, came as an indentured servant to Maryland. His master William Beall of Prince George's County, advertised for him as runaway English servant aged about 27 years old in the Maryland Gazette dated 29 April 1746. He married Elizabeth (who may have been living his widow in Fairfax County, Virginia, in 1782) by whom he had several children, partly christened at the St John's Parish Church in Prince George's County. He is last noticed on 9 December 1765 when he had been jailed for debt. Baldwin Skidmore was then one of several prisoners languishing in jail who agreed to surrender their estates, goods, and effects of any kind (excepting only the necessary wearing apparel of themselves, their wives and children). They were also permitted to keep their working tools, and then after five days the sheriff of the county was ordered to discharge the prisoners and suffer them to go at large. In addition to the children mentioned below a Melinda, Elizabeth and Ann Skidmore appear on the tax list of 1782 in Fairfax County, Virginia (together with Edward Skidmore), and they may also be part of his posterity. Had issue,

32. 1. EDWARD, of whom further.

33. 2. Samuel, born 12 October 1763 according to the register of St. John's Parish. He appears on the tax list of 1787 in Fairfax Parish, Fairfax County, Virginia, living close to his older brother Edward. He appears to have had at least one son,

40. 1. Samuel, born 1800. He married Istly Julia Ann Cassin of Alexandria on 14 August 1822 at Washington, D. C., and 2ndly Martha Ann Soper (born 1813), a widow, on 12 September 1849 at Washington. He is probably the man of his name who served in Company A of Hughes' Regiment of the Maryland and District of Columbia Volunteers in the Mexican War. He was living in the Sixth Ward of the District of Columbia in 1850 (with his two Soper stepchildren). He was a wheelwright by trade and died in September 1879 aged 80 in the District of Columbia. [His will dated 9 January 1873, proved 21 November 1879, has not been seen.] Had issue, as known,

1. Samuel, born 1857. On 25 March 1876 Samuel C. Skidmore enlisted at Washington with the Navy for a term of three years. This reveals that he was aged 19y 5m, a stonemason who was 5ft 6½in tall with hazel eyes, sandy hair and a ruddy complexion with many freckles.

34. 3. (probably) William, born before 1770. He is first noticed at Alexandria, Virginia, on 9 April 1803 when he was a bondsman at the marriage of Peter Chase and Eleanor Smallwood. He married Catherine Robinson on 15 April 1814 at Alexandria; Jesse Robinson was his bondsman. She was living, his widow, in 1840. Had issue, as known,

41. 1. Samuel Skidmore, born December 1815. He married Louisa (born 1818 in Wurttemberg, Germany) and they were living in 1850 at Alexandria. He was a lock keeper there in 1860. In 1880 they are found at 1433 Ohio Avenue in the District of Columbia. He died 23 July 1900 in Van Buren Township, Monroe County, Indiana, aged 85. Had issue, six children including five daughters; he was also survived by two grandchildren Samuel Batt and Louisa Batt,

1. Mary A., born 1843.

2. Julia, born 1845. She married ________ Creamer and was widowed by 1880. No children .
3. Catherine, born 1848.
4. Henrietta, born 1850. She married Frank Jacobs.
5. Virginia, born 1852. She married John Scufferly.

42. 2. Washington, born 1815-20 (aged 20-29 in 1840). He married Ann Paradise (aged 30-39 in 1840) on 8 January 1835 at Washington, D. C. He was head of a family in the 1840 census close to Catherine Skidmore (perhaps a widow and his mother).

The son, TXN [32]. EDWARD SKIDMORE was born in 1759 in southern Maryland according to his descendants. He married Lydia Hall (who was born in 1760 and died in August or September 1814) and they were living by 1782 in Fairfax County, Virginia where he was a carpenter. In the same year a Melinda, Elizabeth and Ann Skidmore also appear on the same tax list, but not thereafter. In 1787 Edward Skidmore was taxed on two horses and three cattle in Fairfax Parish; Samuel Skidmore (presumably his younger brother) was living nearby. On 28 February 1792 William Carlin and his wife Elizabeth granted to Edward and Lydia Skidmore for 5 shillings, a tract of land Gerlying near Four Mile Run for an annual rent of £6 due yearly on the 1st of January in either gold or silver. Edward Skidmore was the head of a family in the 1820 census of Alexandria (then a part of the District of Columbia), and died there on 1 February 1828 aged 69. His will (dated 30 December 1827 “in my usual, but delicate health”) mentions his sons Gerard, John, Lewis, Jesse, and Isaac, and his daughters Ann Harris, Letitia Carlin, and Amelia Skidmore. It was witnessed by Wesley Carlin, Richard Kirby, and John Gladen. The estate was settled in April 1828 and John Skidmore paid legacies to all of his brothers and sisters except Isaac and Amelia. He also paid $15.00 to Harrison Bradley for the expenses of the funeral. Had issue,

37. 1. Gerard (Jared), born about 1784. He married Mariah Richard on 27 April 1810. Gerard Skidmore served as a private in the 57th Regiment of Virginia Militia in the War of 1812. They were living at Alexandria in 1820 (where he was head of a household joining his brother Jesse) and again in 1830. In 1840 he was enumerated in Fairfax County, but was dead before 12 October 1849 when Samuel Birch, Benjamin F. Shreve and S. L. Simmers were appointed to appraise his estate. Had issue, as known,
   1. William W., born 1821. He married Mary E. Howard (who was still living his widow with her children in 1870 in Washington, D. C.). He was a huckster in 1860 in Washington.
   2. A son, born 1825.
   1. Ann M., born 1811. She married William Tucker (born 1798) on 1 December 1833. They were living in Alexandria in 1850; when he is noticed as blind.
   2. A daughter, born 1813.
   3. A daughter, born 1815.
   4. Mary E., born 1817. She was a teacher in the common schools at Washington, D.C., in 1860 living at 518 8th Street West.
   5. Sarah, born 1823. Living at home in Alexandria in 1850.
   6. Octavia, born 1830. She married Istly Emanuel H. Boswell on 2 July 1858, and 2ndly (by 1870) D. C. Talbert, huckster in Washington, D. C.

2. John, born 1786. On 10 May 1833 he purchased 84 acres of land in Fairfax County on the north side of the Middle Turnpike Road and the old Leesburg Road from John Allison. This tract was part of a larger tract called Washington Forest and on 24 March 1837 it was confirmed to him by another deed from George Washington Parke Custis; this deed was witnessed by Samuel Skidmore and Tench Ringold. John Skidmore died in 1847; his will dated 27 February divided his land on both sides of Middle Turnpike between his sister Milly (Amelia) and his brother Isaac. Isaac Skidmore served as executor and the will was recorded on 17 May 1847 in Fairfax County.

38. 3. Lewis (Reverend), born 1789. With the advice and consent of his father he voluntarily put himself apprentice for four years to Lewis Piles on 1 June 1805 to learn "the Art, Trade and Mystery of a Blacksmith" promising that he would not haunt ale houses, taverns, or playhouses, fornicate, or play at dice or cards. According to an autobiographical statement in his will he was “born of His spirit in 1807” and became a preacher in the Methodist denomination in 1812. He was the compiler of A choice of the latest social and camp meeting hymns and spiritual songs published at Baltimore in 1825. He married Drucilla W. Fennell (previously the widow of Edwin H. Pette or Petty) on 3 October 1831 in Charlotte County, Virginia. He wrote from Mossingford, Virginia on 8 June 1853 to Dr. F. T. Stribing at Staunton “& I have made arrangements for Mr. Tinsley to visit my dear son John, & if his condition will justify, to try an excursion through the mountains.” He died in Charlotte County on 8 October 1857 “aged 80” according to an obituary in the Western Democrat survived by his widow and a son and daughter. A codicil to his will (dated 8 September 1857) also left $500.00 to his stepson Dr. R. J. F. Pette, M.D., who was to serve as guardian to his children and was to have his bay mare Topaz. Dr. Pette and his brother Isaac Skidmore were to serve as executors. Had issue,

1. John Fennell, born 1834. He was a patient in the Western State Asylum at Staunton in Augusta County, Virginia, where he had died before 16 June 1859. On this date his mother Mrs. D. W. Skidmore testified that her older son Dr. Peete had occasion to visit him twice “last fall” in his last illness. M. B. Skidmore inherited her brother’s interest in her father’s estate; a third of this was paid to D. W. Skidmore and the remaining two thirds went to M. B. Skidmore.

1. Margaret Bedford, born 1840. She married Thomas A. Proctor on I October 1859 in Charlotte County.

2. Lydia A., born 1845. She died in childbirth.

The 3rd son, TXN [39]. JESSE SKIDMORE, born 19 February 1790. He married Sarah Boyd (born 20 July 1789, died 10 June 1864) on 19 October 1815. They lived at Alexandria where he was a house carpenter. He was a director of the King Street Fire Company from 1823 to 1827. He built a new house for himself at what is now 1024 Queen Street, and he is shown in the 1830 census as the head of a household of 14 people including four young apprentices and three slaves. Jesse Skidmore was engaged by Major Lawrence Lewis to build a wall about the vault where President George Washington is buried and to make other repairs at Mount Vernon. [His letter about this contract is in the Manuscripts Division of the Library of Congress.] He signed a petition in 1848 against the building of a new courthouse on the grounds that it was not needed. His eldest six children (including the twins Andrew F. and Emily C.) were all christened soon by their uncle Reverend Lewis Skidmore. He died 23 December 1854 of paralysis and they are buried (with several of their children) in Ball–Carlin Cemetery in Alexandria. His will he was “born of His spirit in 1807” and became a preacher in the Methodist denomination in 1812. He was the compiler of A choice of the latest social and camp meeting hymns and spiritual songs published at Baltimore in 1825. He married Drucilla W. Fennell (previously the widow of Edwin H. His eldest six children (including the twins Andrew F. and Emily C.) were all christened soon by their uncle Reverend Lewis Skidmore. He died 23 December 1854 of paralysis and they are buried (with several of their children) in the First Presbyterian Cemetery in Alexandria. His will left 10 parcels of real estate to his wife and children. Sarah Skidmore left a will proved 5 March 1866 dividing her estate (including the family home near the southeast comer of Queen and Henry Streets in Alexandria) between her two unmarried daughters Emily C. (the executrix) and Maria L. Skidmore. Emily C. Skidmore bought the family home at auction, and left it at her death to her nephew William Allen. With additions, it still stands and was renovated in 2005.

1. JOHN WILLIAM, of whom further.

2. Lewis Edward, born 20 May 1823. He married Ann Elizabeth (born May 1828). He is listed in the city directory of Washington, D. C., in 1860 at 675 12th West, but is not enumerated there in the 1860 census. They were living at 1011 Cameron Street, Alexandria, in 1900. He died there on 24 July 1900, leaving no issue.

3. Andrew Fletcher, born 16 November 1826. He was a Third Corporal in the 175th Regiment of Mount Vernon Guards (Captain William Smith's Company), and then in Company E, 17th Regiment of Virginia Infantry (Corse's Brigade). Distinguished for gallantry on the field, he was killed at Yorktown on 2 May 1862.

1. Ann Eliza, born 16 August 1816. She died 16 September 1827.
2. Maria L., born 17 September 1820. She died 6 September 1893 of consumption and is buried with her parents in the First Presbyterian Cemetery in Alexandria.
3. Emily Charlotte, born February 1828. She never married and was living in 1900 at 204 Columbus Street, Alexandria, with her niece Mary D. Allen. She died 3 August 1911.

The eldest son,

TXN [46]. JOHN WILLIAM SKIDMORE, born 6 September 1818. He married on 4 February 1845 Mary Agnes (born 1825), daughter of Samuel Wimsatt (performed by Reverend Father Mathews). He was a house carpenter at Alexandria in 1850 and died on 16 December 1865 “of drunkenness.” His widow survived him for many years and was living in 1880 age 56, a teacher, in Washington, D.C. In 1900 she was at 213 Shore Street, Petersburg, Dinwiddie County, Virginia living with her son-in-law Michael Gary. Had issue,

53. 1. John Samuel [alias Boyd Skidmore], born 8 December 1845. He was raised as a Catholic and was a student in 1860 at St. Joseph's College at Reading, Perry County, Ohio. Most of the students were from the south; it closed its doors in 1861 at the start of the Civil War and John S. Skidmore returned to Alexandria where he enlisted in Company H, 6th Regiment of Virginia Cavalry. He later became a Methodist and married Anna Amelia Wilkins at Alexandria on 5 January 1873. An architect, he went soon after his marriage to Williston, Fayette County, Tennessee (where he was living in 1880). He died 7 April 1890 at Fort Smith, Arkansas, a suicide by morphine. His wife died soon after on 3 March 1891, aged 44. They had issue,

1. John Emil, born February 1876. He was living with his brother-in-law James Rutledge in 1900 at Fort Smith. He married Katherine Mae Faucette on 19 December 1901. She died in 1922 and he was killed in his drugstore at Pensacola, Florida on 28 December 1937.

2. Jessica Steadman, born 28 March 1878. She was living with her brother-in-law in 1900, but married 1stly Wallace Gill, and 2ndly William Lewie Foster in 1910. She died 6 May 1958 at Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas.

TXN [43]. JOHN W. SKIDMORE, born 1780-90, was the head of a family in Fairfax County in 1820 living close to William Skidmore next above. He was a bondsman on 21 November 1821 at Alexandria at the marriage of John D. Harrison and Elizabeth Carlin. He married (born about 1790) who was living recently widowed at Alexandria in 1830. They appear to have had seven children born from about 1808 to 1830 in Alexandria.

MELINDA, ELIZABETH and ANN SKIDMORE all appear on the 1782 tax list of Fairfax County. They are not found thereafter.

JOHN W. SKIDMORE, born in May 1823. He married Mary E. Lightner on 5 March 1847 in the District of Columbia. They were living there in 1900 at 120 Virginia Avenue, S.E. He was, no doubt, a son of the elder John W. Skidmore noticed above.

TXN [47]. GEORGE SKIDMORE, born 1826 in the District of Columbia. He was probably a son of the George Skidmore who married Sarah Gardner (noticed below); they had an older son not identified who was born about 1824. George Skidmore, Jr., went to Ohio as a young man. He enlisted there for one year in Company F, 2nd Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Infantry on 3 June 1846 for service in the Mexican War. George Skidmore, a shoemaker, was living in 1850 in Jackson Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, in the household of Samuel Gardner who was probably a kinsman. He married Eliza Simmons on 1 October 1854 in Athens County, and they were living in 1860 at Savannah (post office Guysville) in Rome Township. George Skidmore, age 35, enlisted as a Second Lieutenant on 19 August 1861 for three years at Athens, Athens County, Ohio, in Company C, 18th Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Infantry and was discharged on 3 January 1865 at Camp Chase for wounds received at Kennesaw Mountain, Georgia. They had moved by 1880 to the village of Watkins, Mill Creek Township, Union County, Ohio, where he was a shoe and bootmaker. (In 1880 he stated that his father was born in Maryland and his mother in the District of Columbia.) He died 9 June 1881 and is buried in the Watkins cemetery in Mill Creek Township. Had issue,

54. 1. John, born September 1855. He married Lydia J. Shoby and was living in 1900 in Darby Township, Madison County, Ohio, and on Post Road in that county in 1920 and with a son-in-law in 1930.

55. 2. George E., born August 1862. He married Alice R. in 1888. They were living in 1900 in Walnut Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, and in 1910 at Lithopolis, Bloom Township, Fairfield County, Ohio, and on Marcy Road in that county in 1920.

56. 3. Emory, born November 1865. He married Viola R. Davis in 1891 and they were living at Continental, Monroe Township, Putnam County, Ohio, in 1900.

JOSHUA L. SKIDMORE, born 1827 in Virginia. He served in Company C of Watson’s Battalion of the Maryland and District of Columbia Infantry in the Mexican War. He was living in the Fourth Ward of Washington in 1850, unmarried and a carpenter by trade.

GEORGE W. SKIDMORE, born 10 August 1836 in Fairfax County. He was living in 1850 in the household of James Danford (born 1791) and his wife Am (born 1797). This household was very close to that of JOHN W. SKIDMORE (born May 1823) noticed above. In 1860 George Skidmore was employed as an engineer at the Government Hospital for the Insane in Washington, and was working there in 1900 with his wife Josephine according to the census.

The following persons married in the District of Columbia are unidentified. It is likely that a part of them belong to the family found earlier in STAFFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA (q.v.).

ANN SKIDMORE married Jacob Groves on 18 April 1850.

CATHERINE SKIDMORE married Aroth Croft on 29 August 1839.

COLUMBIA SKIDMORE married Washington Berry on 7 December 1854 according to the Planter’s Advocate published at Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

TXN [44]. GEORGE SKIDMORE married Sarah Gardner on 23 September 1822. They are probably parents of the GEORGE SKIDMORE of Athens County, Ohio, noticed above.

HENRY SKIDMORE, born 1820 in Virginia. He served in the District of Columbia Volunteers in the Seminole War in Florida as a private, and later filed an invalid’s certificate when he applied for a pension. He married Matilda Smith on 17 April 1840. They were living in 1860 in the First Ward where he was a paperhanger.

JANE E. SKIDMORE married William L. Reese on 22 October 1839.

MARGARET SKIDMORE married Oxford Boucher on 27 July 1857. She was living, the head of a family, in 1860 in the Third Ward of Georgetown, D.C.

NANCY SKIDMORE married Rezin P. Taylor on 3 June 1851.

TXN [44a]. RAYMOND SKIDMORE was born in 1834 in the District of Columbia and married Mary Ann Caulk (1838-1904) on 22 March 1855. He is not found in the 1850 census but in 1860 he and his wife Mary Ann were living at Lawrenceville, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, where he was a blacksmith. In 1861 they were back in Washington, D.C., living at 488 E Street, South. They moved soon after to Parkersburg, Wood County, West Virginia, where they lived for the rest of their lives. Raymond Skidmore had died before 11 January 1900 when the admons on his estate was appointed. He had a brother George Skidmore (of Athens County, Ohio?)
who served as a trustee for the two children of Raymond Skidmore on 22 November 1866 (abode unstated) in Parkersburg.

REBECCA SKIDMORE married Henry Davis on 8 April 1815.
REBECCA SKIDMORE married Sanford Bayliss on 23 February 1830. See Sarah Skidmore, perhaps a sister.

SAMUEL SKIDMORE married Julia Ann Causine on 14 August 1822. She was a daughter of John Coseen of Alexandria who remembers her in his will dated 29 August 1833.
SARAH SKIDMORE married Collin Bayliss on 6 August 1833. See Rebecca Skidmore, perhaps a sister.
WILLIAM SKIDMORE married Penelope Farr on 26 September 1812. He was presumably dead by 16 November 1820 when a Penelope Skidmore married Benjamin Crupper.

VIRGINIA F. SKIDMORE married John T. Burke on 16 December 1856. She is not found in the 1850 census.

Other unidentified Skidmores in Virginia:
JANE FRANCES SKIDMORE and James Donaldson, both of Fairfax, were married 19 September 1839.

SAMUEL SKIDMORE once owned lot E68 in the Union Cemetery of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in Alexandria, Virginia. There are no stones on the lot.
ABENHALL, GLOUCESTERSHIRE

The ancestors of the family at Abenhall will be found earlier at THRUXTON, HEREFORDSHIRE, a branch of the family anciently at Kentchurch.

ABL [1]. JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Mitcheldean and Abenhall (elder son of Godwin Scudamore (TXN [25], see p.7) by his wife Elizabeth Potter), was baptized on 10 October 1729 at English Bicknor, Gloucestershire. He married 1stly on 15 December 1749 at St. Nicholas’ Church, Gloucester, Anne Wellington of Lea, Herefordshire (who was buried at Lea on 25 August 1750). He married 2ndly (licence) at Abenhall on 5 January 1750/1 Elizabeth Voyce of Ross-on-Wye, Herefordshire, who was born about 1722. (She survived him and was buried at Abenhall on 7 January 1808 aged 86 according to the inscription on the family tomb in the churchyard). On 16 November 1770 he purchased a cottage with a garden and stables at the corner of the lane leading to the Forest of Dean at Abenhall from William Vaughan (and William his son) which had formerly belonged to Charles Walding. Mr. Scudamore died at Abenhall on 6 April 1796 and was buried there three days later, having had issue,

5. 1. JOHN, of Flaxley, of whom further.
6. 2. RICHARD, of Abenhall, to whom we will return.
    1. Elizabeth, baptized at Mitcheldean 20 September 1752.
    2. Mary, baptized at Abenhall 8 December 1760. She married at Mitcheldean on 13 May 1789, Thomas Harris, of Longhope, Gloucestershire.
    3. Hannah, baptized at Abenhall 26 February 1765. She married at English Bicknor in August 1786, Joseph Young.
    4. Sarah, baptized at Abenhall 9 March 1771. She married (licence) at Mitcheldean on 15 August 1788, William Mayo.

The elder son,
ABL [5]. JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Flaxley and Boxbush Farm, Longhope, baptized at Mitcheldean 1 May 1754. He married (licence) at Flaxley on 6 January 1785, Mary, the daughter of George and Mary Martin of Flaxley (baptized at Flaxley 16 August 1763, who survived her husband and died 5 January 1852 and was buried at Longhope five days later). In her will dated 23 August 1850 (proved 28 July 1852) she directs that her property at Ruardean and Mitcheldean be sold and that the proceeds be divided among her five children. Mr. Scudamore died on 7 May 1840 and was buried five days later at Longhope. In his will, dated 23 August 1839 (proved 30 May 1840), he leaves his freehold farm at Boxbush of 47 acres to his son, Richard.

8. 1. JOHN, of Flaxley, of whom further.
9. 2. Richard, of Upper Boxbush Farm, Longhope, baptized at Flaxley 10 February 1793. He married (licence) at Abenhall 7 June 1820, his cousin Charlotte, the youngest daughter of Richard and Sarah Scudamore of Abenhall (who survived her husband and was buried aged 88 at Abenhall on 25 February 1887). Mr. Scudamore died on 16 May 1879 (will dated 4 June 1878, proved 4 July 1879), and was buried four days later at Longhope. Had issue, christened at Longhope,

19. 1. George of Bradley House Farm, Longhope, baptized 26 November 1820. He married in 1847, Martha, daughter of John and Anne Drinkwater (born about 1821, who survived him and died at Newent on 24 August 1881, buried at Longhope seven days later). In her will dated 11 July 1877 (proved 30 September 1881) she left her estate to her three surviving children, the eldest of whom she appoints executrix. Mr. Scudamore died in his father’s lifetime on 10 November 1871 and was buried at Longhope five days later. In his will, dated 26 October 1866 (proved 9 January 1872) he leaves his estate to his wife, who he appoints executrix. Had issue,
    2. Martha, baptized at Longhope 22 May 1851. She died in infancy and was buried at Abenhall on 5 September 1854.
    3. Sarah Ann, baptized at Longhope 6 March 1853. She married in 1871 William Dodds of Tibberton, Gloucestershire.
    4. Martha Ann, born 1855. She married on 12 April 1881 at Longhope George William Crook, a farmer of Newent.

2. Richard, baptized 24 July 1831. He was unmarried and died in 1869.
1. Anne, baptized 6 October 1822. She married (licence) at Longhope on 18
June 1849, Thomas Drinkwater, of Lea, Herefordshire.
2. Charlotte, baptized 22 June 1828. She married in 1855 Alfred William Kitsell, of Gloucester (who died in 1899). Mrs. Kitsell was buried at Longhope on 27 September 1886.
3. Sarah, baptized 17 October 1834. She died in infancy and was buried at Abenhall on 22 October of the same year.

2. Mary, baptized at Flaxley 4 December 1796. She married Samuel Smith on 19 September 1819 at Hempsted, Gloucestershire and was living his widow in 1850.
3. Ann, baptized at Longhope 8 June 1806. She married (licence 9 July 1853) Harry Greens, of Newent, Gloucestershire.

The elder son,

JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Moors Farm, Flaxley, baptized at Flaxley 14 August 1786. He married Sarah Bennett on 7 April 1819 at Hempsted, Gloucestershire, both of the extraparochial hamlet of Littleworth. She was born 1789: she survived him and died 21 January 1866. In her will dated 18 January (proved 18 May) 1866 she leaves her small holding at Lea Bailey for the benefit (after sale) of four of her children (named), and nominated her brother-in-law Harry Greens as her executor. Mr. Scudamore in his will dated 6 October 1853 (proved 25 March 1854) left his freehold property at Green Bottom in East Dean Township to his second son John, and his freehold and leasehold property at Lea Line within the manor of Longhope to his youngest son Richard. He also devises to his same two sons his small holdings at Mill Green in East Dean to be held in trust for his married daughters Mary Wintle and Sarah Ann Smith and their grandchildren. He appoints his wife Sarah his executrix, and left her his farm and associated property called The Moors in Flaxley. After her death The Moors was to go to his six children (named) subject to the payment of £100 to his son John. Mr. Scudamore died on 10 October 1853 and was buried at Flaxley four days later, having had issue,

17. 1. GEORGE, of Barrow-in-Furness, of whom further.
18. 2. JOHN, of Littledean and Lea Bailey (in East Dean), of whom presently.
3. Richard, of Hazelhurst Farm, Walford, Herefordshire, baptized at Littledean 13 July 1828. He married 1stly in 1859 Mary Ann Merrett (born 1825 at Abenhall, and buried there on 31 January 1868). He married 2ndly in 1869 Margaret Smith (born 1833, a widow with children by her previous marriage, who survived her husband and died on 20 July 1893). Her will (dated 7 July, proved 10 November 1893) names her daughter Hilda Margareta Read and her niece Martha Ann Drinkwater to whom she makes bequests. Mr. Scudamore died (presumably without issue) on 28 August 1887. In his will (dated 14 August 1875, proved 24 February 1888) he leaves his freehold and copyhold property to his wife Margaret, and then in default of issue to his brothers and sisters (named) and to his niece Martha Ann Drinkwater.
4. Joseph, baptized at Littledean on 29 August 1830. He died in infancy and was buried at Flaxley on 1 September 1830.
2. Hannah, born 1823. She married at Flaxley on 11 August 1840 John Merrett of Arlingham, Gloucestershire.
3. Mary, born about 1827. She married (licence) on 4 May 1848 at Flaxley Thomas Wintle of Taynton, Gloucestershire.

The eldest son,

JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire, baptized at Longhope 6 August 1820. He married (licence) on 10 November 1854 at St. Nicholas' church, Gloucester, Mary Bamford of Newnham, Gloucestershire, (born 1837, who survived her husband and died at Barrow-in-Furness in 1899). Mr. Scudamore (who worked on the railways) was living in Penrith Street, Barrow, in 1881, and at 10 Glasgow Street at his death on 30 January 1886. (His admons granted on 16 September 1901 to his son John Thomas Scudamore because the widow Mary had died without administering her late husband’s personal estate.) Had issue,

37. 1. JOHN THOMAS, of Barrow, of whom further.
2. Joseph, of Preston, Lancashire, born 1859. He married at Lytham, Lancashire, on 21 October 1895 Margaret (born 1844 who survived him and died in 1925), the widow of Wilding and a daughter of George Langton. Mr. Scudamore died in 1916 without issue.

He married at Abenhall on 13 February 1784 Sarah Nelmes (born about 1766, who survived her husband and died on 25 November 1843 and was buried at Abenhall four days later). Mr. Scudamore died on 19 May 1829 and was buried three days later at Abenhall. In his will (dated 7 April 1827, proved 11 July 1829) it appears that he acquired by inheritance, and also doubtless by purchase, several small holdings within the parishes of Mitcheldean and Abenhall (or vicinity). He devises these properties to his wife and children and he appoints his wife and his son Joseph as executors. The family grave at Abenhall, adjacent to that of his grandparents, has memorials inscribed to his wife and himself on the south-facing panel. Had issue, christened at Abenhall,
1. Richard, of Westbury-on-Severn and Abenhall, baptized 30 August 1789. His father, in his will, left him a small holding in Mitcheldean parish called Skult’s House (a property acquired by his great-grandfather, Godwin Scudamore, in 1753), as well as a legacy of £40 and some of his father’s personal effects, including two hogsheads, a barrel and a kilderkin. His father made a provision in his will that should Richard not have children then Skult’s House is to go to his brother Joseph. Richard Scudamore did not marry; he died on 4 March 1860 and was buried at Abenhall four days later.
10. 2. JOHN, of Abenhall, of whom later.
3. Thomas, of Vandalia, Gallatin County, Illinois, baptized 12 May 1793. In 1819 he and his brothers George and Philip emigrated to the United States, embarking in the spring of that year. Thomas Scudamore died unmarried of fever at Vandalia on 10 September 1820. He and his brother Philip are remembered in an inscription incised on the west-facing side of their father’s tomb at Abenhall in the churchyard.
11. 4. JOSEPH, of Pengethley, Herefordshire, baptized 5 July 1795. He was the
12. 5. GEORGE, of Gallatin County, Illinois. baptized 15 October 1797. He emigrated (with his brothers Thomas and Philip) to the United States in 1819. In a letter (written on 29 April 1823 in Gallatin County) to his brother John at Abenhall he breaks the news of the deaths of their brother Thomas from fever and of the loss of their married brother Philip from the same complaint. George says of himself that he had suffered two bouts of fever from which he thought that he would not recover, but he has not written any of this to his parents so as not to distress them. He ends by saying that he expects to see his brother John in 12 months time. George’s father in his will leaves him a legacy of £40 with the proviso that if he pre-deceases his mother or does not return to England within three years of her death then the legacy is to be paid to the testator’s grandson, John Scudamore son of Ann Drinkwater. Mr. Scudamore died on 27 November 1841 leaving issue four sons and three daughters in GALLATIN COUNTY, ILLINOIS (see p.35).

13. 6. Philip, of Albion, Edwards County, Illinois, baptized 29 March 1800. A blacksmith, he emigrated to the United States with his brothers Thomas and George in 1819 and settled in the English settlement at Albion. He married on 8 February 1820 Ann Drinkwater (a native of Lincolnshire) who was brought to Albion by Mr. Flower who founded the English colony there. She was previously the widow of _______ Stone and married 3rdly Moses Smith (born 1795, died 1854) of Albion on 16 December 1822 in Edwards County by whom she had other children; she died 6 December 1859. Philip died of fever on 1 May 1822, leaving (according to the admons on his estate) an acre lot in Albion where he had his smithy and a small amount of personal property. Had issue an only son, Thomas E., of Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana, born 4 December 1820. He married on 25 April 1843 Jane Pickford (who is noted in the 1870 census as born in England and aged 46). He was a harness maker by trade and had died before 15 September 1856 when the guardianship of his four minor children was given to their grandmother and step-grandfather. Had issue (the three eldest born at Albion),

1. George, born 1848. He was living at Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana, on 8 March 1864 when he enlisted for three years in Company C, 58th Regiment of Indiana Infantry in the Civil War. He was mustered out at Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, on 25 July 1865.

3. Mary J., born 1846. She married William H. Evans (died 1895) on 12 October 1869. They lived at Oakland City in Gibson County, Indiana.

4. Clara E., born June 1853 in Indiana. She was living alone on Broadway Street in Princeton in 1900, but married D. P. Stuart on 2 April 1903.

14. 1. Sarah, baptized 22 February 1785. She married (licence) at Abenhall on 29 August 1809 John Ballinger of that parish. Her father in his will leaves her £100. She died on 15 August 1829 and was buried at Abenhall, where an inscription to her memory is recorded on the north-facing panel of her parent’s tombstone.

2. Ann, baptized (as Nancy) 8 October 1786. She married (licence) at Abenhall on 25 February 1811 John Drinkwater of Huntley, Gloucestershire (who died 11 February 1832). Before her marriage Ann was the mother of a son who is remembered in the will of his grandfather, Richard Scudamore, as “John Scudamore son of my daughter Ann Drinkwater”, and to whom he leaves a legacy of £20 and a cottage and some land in Silver Street in Abenhall parish. Ann Drinkwater died on 26 April 1866 and memorials to herself, her husband John, their two sons Thomas and Edward, are inscribed on two of the side panels of her father and mother’s tombstone. Her son, John Scudamore, of Mitcheldean, Abenhall and Hereford, baptized at Abenhall 15 April 1808. He married (licence) at St. Mary de Lode, Gloucester, on 16 September 1831 Hannah Hail (born at Longhope about 1805, who survived her husband and died at Hereford but was buried at Longhope on 30 April 1880). John and his wife first lived at Mitcheldean where John was a maltster according to the census returns for 1841. Ten years later the family was living at the Old Vicarage, Abenhall, where John farmed 159 acres. By 1861 John and Hannah were living at Hereford where the census returns for that year show that they were dwelling in Commercial Street in that city. John following his original trade of maltster. He died at Longhope and was buried there on 28 December 1875. Had issue,
1. Samuel, baptized at Abenhall 7 August 1836. He died there and was buried on 22 March 1846.
2. Thomas, baptized at Mitcheldean 23 September 1838. He was unmarried in 1861 and was living with his parents at Hereford where he followed his father’s trade as a maltster. He died in 1865 at Hereford.
41. 3. George, baptized 28 September 1841. He was living with his parents at Abenhall in 1851, but married Elizabeth Palmer (who survived him and died on 26 June 1880 at Yazor, Herefordshire) on 4 March 1869 at Stauton-on-Arrow. He and his wife moved shortly after their marriage to Suffolk where their children were born. Mr. Scudamore was a groom and coachman to a family at Hitcham Hall.
He died at Bilstedon, near Hitcham, and was buried at Hitcham on 21 June 1877. His widow and his young children returned to Herefordshire where she died three years later. The children lived with their aunt Ellen (wife of Charles Perry) at Stauton-on-Wye and later emigrated to America. Had issue, born at Hitcham, 89. 1. Arthur, born 1871. He emigrated in 1891 and settled first in New England where he worked for a gentleman named Wickwire. He moved by 1900 with his employer to Cortland, Cortland County,
New York, where they were nail manufacturers. He married Helena ____ and they were living in 1920 at 11 Broadway Street, Cortland. He died in 1960 having worked for Wickwire for over 60 years. Had issue,
140. 1. Roger Arthur, born 17 March
1911 at Cortland. He married Marian Cox (died 1943) and died at Cortland on 22 October
1992. He is buried there in St.
Mary’s Cemetery. Has issue.
1. Hazel, born 1898. She was living at home in 1920.

3. Charlotte, baptized 16 April 1801. She married at Abenhall on 7 June 1820 Richard Scudamore, of Longhope, her cousin (died 1879). Her father in his will leaves her two properties in Abenhall situated on the south side of Gloucester Road, then occupied by Joseph Evans and John Jones. This bequest is subject to the payment of a legacy of £20 out of these properties to the testator’s grandson John, son of his daughter Ann Drinkwater. Charlotte Scudamore died on 21 February 1887 and was buried four days later at Abenhall, and a memorial to her is incised on the south-facing panel of her parent’s gravestone.

The 2nd son, ABL [10].

JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Abenhall, baptized there on 11 September 1791. He married 1stly at Longhope on 21 August 1823 Ann (born about 1801, buried at Abenhall 10 February 1840), a daughter of Daniel and Winifred Young of Hartsborn in Longhope parish, by whom he had issue,

21. 1. JAMES, of Mitcheldean and Northampton, of whom further.

22. 2. JOHN, of Abenhall, of whom presently.

3. George, born 12 September (and baptized at Abenhall 14 October) 1827. He died in infancy the following year and was buried there on 31 October 1828.

4. Joseph, of Longhope and Gloucester, born 13 December (baptized 28 December) 1828. Mr. Scudamore, a coal merchant, was unmarried. He died at Gloucester on 12 November 1870 and was buried at Abenhall five days later. In his will (dated 7 November 1867, proved 1 March 1871) he makes bequests to his brothers James and John, and to his sisters Harriet and Emily. A memorial to him is incised on the south panel of his grandparent’s grave at Abenhall.

vi. William Alfred, born and died at Armadale in 1890.

vii. William Dennis David, born 1892 in Richmond, died 18 September 1914 from tuberculosis, aged 22.

viii. Harriet Emily, born 1895 in Richmond and died there in 1904.

A daughter, born in Australia,

ii. Ada Winifred WARD, born 14 October 1865 at Cogills Creek. Her mother stated at the child’s birth registration that she was married to William Ward in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, England in 1858 (for which there is presently no evidence). Ada’s name was changed to Ada Scudamore. She married Frank Esau Place in 1886 and they had two daughters, Adelaide Winfred Maria Place and Ada May Victoria Place. Ada Place died aged 30 and her two daughters were raised by William Scudamore, her half-brother and his wife Mary.

Mr. Scudamore married 2ndly at Abenhall on 12 May 1846 Elizabeth (who survived him and died at Plump Hill Township, East Dean, on 12 March 1861, admons granted on 16 August of that year to Dinah, wife of Aaron Cooper, her only child by her first husband), widow of _______ Cook. John Scudamore died on 11 April 1851 and was buried at Abenhall eight days later. In his will (dated 12 June 1848, proved 17 March 1852) he devises several properties in Abenhall and the vicinity to his (named) children by his first marriage.

The eldest son,

ABL [21]. JAMES SCUDAMORE, of Mitcheldean and Northampton. Northamptonshire, born 16 August (baptized at Abenhall 22 August) 1824. He married at Mitcheldean on 6 June 1854 Charlotte (born 1834, who survived her husband and died at Northampton on 6 October 1907), daughter of George Lawson Whatley, a solicitor then practicing in Mitcheldean. Mr. Scudamore was a road contractor in Northampton. He died there on 23 January 1899 and was buried in the General Cemetery. His will (dated 6 November 1897, proved 12 April 1899) bequeaths his household effects and a legacy to his wife, and the residue of his estate to his seven surviving children (not named). Had issue,

42. 1. George James, of Northampton, born 5 September (baptized at Abenhall 23 November) 1859 at Ebley, Stonehouse, Gloucestershire. He married at Edmonton, Middlesex, in 1890 Mary C. Goulden, of Nottingham (born 1855, died 1890). Mr. Scudamore, a photographer, died at Northampton in 1942 leaving issue an only daughter, Evelyn Conway, of Northampton, born at Greenwich in 1892. She died unmarried at Northampton on 5 July 1968.

43. 2. JOHN, of Montreal, Quebec, Canada, of whom further.
3. William, born at Northampton in 1868. He emigrated to the United States and died (it is believed at New York City) on 31 January 1896.

4. Joseph Edward Whatley, of Northampton, born there in 1874. He was the senior partner of Scudamore & Luck, a firm of asphalters. Mr. Scudamore was unmarried and died at Northampton on 6 August 1956 and was buried in his parent’s grave. His will (dated 27 October 1954, proved 12 November 1956) leaves legacies to his relatives and friends, including his niece Evelyn Conway Scudamore.

2. Elizabeth Ann, baptised 10 December 1854 at Tones, Devon. At the time of the 1881 census she was teaching at a girls' school in Bristol. She married at Northampton in 1888 Frederick Charles Stuchbury, a commercial clerk.

He married at St. Lambert, Quebec, on 5 September 1914 Kathleen Ruby (born 17 March 1895, who survived her husband and died on 30 January 1985), a daughter of William and Cathlenia May Oakley of Montreal South. During World War I Mr. Scudamore served with the First Battalion, Canadian Cyclists Corps, and afterwards with the army of occupation. As a young man he followed athletic pursuits, was an accomplished canoeist, distance runner and sprinter, amateur wrestler and swimmer. Mr. and Mrs. Scudamore lived at Toronto and St. Lambert where Mr. Scudamore was in industrial sales. He died at Unionville, Ontario, on 13 May 1977, having had issue, 2 daughters & a son.

For continuation of the descent of the family at Abenhall it is necessary to return to, ABL [22]. JOHN SCUDAMORE, of Abenhall, born 9 November (baptized 11 December) 1825, the 2nd son of John Scudamore of Abenhall (died 1851) by his wife Ann Young. He married 16 September 1858 at English Bicknor, Mary Ann, a daughter of James and Mary Buston of Trump Farm, English Bicknor (born 1833, died 17 March 1870, buried at Abenhall three days later). Mr. Scudamore farmed at Abenhall where he was awarded several silver trophies for good husbandry. In his will (dated 10 October 1893, proved 12 June 1894) he leaves properties in Abenhall parish and neighborhood to his six surviving sons and his daughter, appoints his sons, John Howard and Albert, co-executors with his brother-in-law, Thomas Bennett Brain. He died on 8 November 1893 and was buried three days later at Abenhall. Had issue, baptized at Abenhall,

1. James Pickering, born 13 March, (baptized 17 April) 1860. He died in infancy and was buried at Abenhall on 6 February 1861.

44. 2. John Howard, of Abenhall, Aston Ingham and Ross-on-Wye, born 10 March (baptized 16 April) 1861. He married on 28 April 1887 at Hope Mansell, Herefordshire, his cousin Ellen Hartland, a daughter of Thomas Bennett and Emily Brain (born 1865, died 1927). He and his brothers and sister were left a legacy of £2000 in the will of their grandfather, James Buston. During his lifetime the family fortunes declined, influenced (no doubt) by the general recession that hit farming at that period and aggravated by fires that destroyed the flour mill... that he and his brother Albert owned. From correspondence it is clear that he was scrupulously fair in sharing the family inheritance with his brothers and sister. In a letter to his brother Godwin in New Zealand dated 20 January 1923, he expresses disappointment in his efforts to claim an inheritance to which he believed his family was entitled. He had corresponded with an attorney in Salt Lake City, but nothing else is known of his suit. (Perhaps we have here an echo of aspirations other members of the Scudamore family had entertained relating to past litigation.) Mr. Scudamore died in reduced circumstances on 6 July 1932 at Ross-on-Wye where he was buried. His will is dated 8 April 1909 (proved 26 July 1932). Left issue an only son, Cornelius John, of Gloucester, born 11 April 1894. He married on 1 November 1921, at Twigworth, Gloucestershire, Doris Christabel, daughter of Frank Martin Vines of Twigworth Court (born 1 November 1898, who survived her husband and died at Bradley House Nursing Home near Mitcheldean on 3 December 1981 and was buried on 10 December at Gloucester Cemetery). Mr. Scudamore, a surveyor by profession, served with the Royal Engineers in Salonica during World War I. He was appointed Deputy Surveyor of Gloucester in 1922 and Surveyor the following year. He died without issue of a heart attack during a visit to London on 23 March 1948 and was buried at Twigworth.

45. 3. ALBERT, OF CHELTENHAM, OF WHOM FURTHER.

46. 4. Godwin, of Dunedin, New Zealand, born 19 December 1863, baptized 18 January 1864. He emigrated to New Zealand in 1888 sailing on the S. S. Ironie. He married in 1891 Elizabeth Campbell, a daughter of Captain L. F. Mathieson, of Dunedin (born 1869, died May 1945). Mr. Scudamore died in November 1945, having had issue,

   1. Gladys Mary, born 1893. She died unmarried in 1918.
   2. Winifred Elizabeth, born 1894. She died unmarried in 1967.
   3. Constance Mabel, born 1896. She died unmarried in 1943.
   5. Emily Blanche, born 1907. She married 12 April 1933 Robert Alfred Young (born 1907, died 1989). They live at Timaru, South Canterbury, New Zealand.

47. 5. Joseph Leonard, of East Dean, Gloucestershire, born 26 August (baptized 21 September) 1865. He married in 1893 Emma Meek (who survived her husband and died on 28 September 1955). Mr. Scudamore died on 7 June 1909 having had issue,

96. 1. Albert Leonard, of East Dean, baptized at Abenhall 12 February 1900. He married there 24 December 1927 Elsie May Jones (born 1901 who survived him and died on 13 June 1986). Mr. Scudamore, a collier, died on 9 April 1961 and was buried at Abenhall leaving issue, a son & 3 daughters.
   1. Margaret Ann, born 1894. She married at Bristol in 1923 William J. Hobbs.
   2. Eleanor Mary, born 23 August (baptized at Abenhall 9 September) 1897. She died in infancy and was buried at Abenhall on 16 March 1898.

6. Henry Buston, born 16 June (baptized 20 July) 1867. He may have gone to Australia for a time but seems to have died at Bristol in 1933.

1. Mary Ann, born 24 December 1868, baptized 20 January 1869. She married in 1891 Scudamore Bennett Brain, the youngest son of Thomas Bennett Brain of Drybrook, Gloucestershire. They had issue four sons and a daughter.

The 3rd son,

ABL [45]. ALBERT SCUDAMORE, OF CHURCHAM AND CHELTENHAM, Gloucestershire, born 22 September (baptized 19 October) 1862 at Abenhall. He married 1stly on 28 January 1890 Caroline Elizabeth (born 1864, died 5 June 1902), daughter of Charles Hall of Brockworth Court (near Gloucester) by whom he had issue,

1. John Reginald Hall, of Cheltenham, born 30 November 1890. He married in 1919 Annie Keren (born 3 December 1894, died 3 April 1966), a daughter of Sidney Organ. Mr. Scudamore lived at Charlton Kings, Cheltenham, where he died on 27 February 1973 leaving no issue.

Mr. Scudamore married 2ndly in 1903 Ada Louise (born 1882, who survived her husband and died in Australia in 1952), daughter of Arthur George Peach. Shortly after her husband’s death Mrs. Scudamore emigrated to Australia taking with her the two sons by him. Mr. Scudamore died at Cheltenham on 15 January 1912 leaving issue by his second wife,

93. 2. ALBERT GODWIN, of whom further.
94. 3. Richard, born 1906. He married Elizabeth Robertson by whom he had issue, a son & a daughter.

The 2nd son,

ABL [93]. ALBERT GODWIN (SAM) SCUDAMORE, of Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, born at Cheltenham 3 August 1904. He married Jean (born 1914), a daughter of George Vincent William of Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. Mr. and Mrs. Scudamore lived at Corinda (near Brisbane). He died on 28 December 1992, having had issue, 2 sons.
HENTLAND, HEREFORDSHIRE

Richard Scudamore of ABENHALL, GLOUCESTERSHIRE (noticed elsewhere above, ABL [6], see p.17), was born in 1758. He was descended from a branch of the family at KENTCHURCH, HEREFORDSHIRE, that settled in the 15th century first at Thruxton and later at Huntsham in Goodrich in that county. Richard Scudamore acquired by inheritance as well as purchase several small holdings in the vicinity of Abenhall and Mitcheldean. He married Sarah Nelmes in 1784 and died at Abenhall in 1829 having had by her six sons and three daughters. It is to his son JOSEPH SCUDAMORE and his descendants that we now turn.

ABL [11]. JOSEPH SCUDAMORE, of Little Treaddow and Little Pengethley, in Hentland, near Ross-on-Wye, Herefordshire, (the 4th son of Richard Scudamore by his wife Sarah Nelmes) was baptized at Abenhall, Gloucestershire, on 5 July 1795. He married on 5 June 1821 at Hempsted Elizabeth (baptized at Mitcheldean 6 March 1803, who survived him), a daughter of James and Mary Hale of that place. In his younger days Mr. Scudamore was a National Hunt rider who had the crowning success of winning the Grand National at Aintree on Oxo in 1959. Mr. Scudamore farms and trains horses on his 84 acres of land at Prothither. Has issue,

1. PETER, of whom further.

The only son, PETER SCUDAMORE, M.B.E., born 1958. A National Hunt rider and a professional jockey he has achieved outstanding success in his racing career. He shared the title of Champion Jockey with John Francome in the 1981-2 National Hunt season, and he won the title in the seven consecutive seasons from 1985-6 to 1991-2. In the 1989-90 season his success was rewarded with 221 winners, about two-thirds of them from the stables of the highly successful trainer Martin Pipe who saddled 208 winners. Mr. Scudamore’s achievement exceeded that of Jonjo O’Neill’s record of 149 winners in one season. Although winning the Grand National at Aintree has so far eluded him, he came third in 1985 riding Corbiere. His autobiography A Share of Success (1983), written with Alan Lee, gives an interesting account of his family and career, with a generous tribute to John Francome, his friend and one-time rival in the sport who contributes in the foreword. Peter Scudamore was made a member of the Order of the British Empire for his services to National Hunt racing in the Queen’s birthday honours on 16 June 1990. He married in 1980 Marilyn Kington (born 1954). Has issue,

GALLATIN COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ABL [6]. Richard Scudamore, of ABENHALL, GLOUCESTERSHIRE (see p.17), was born in 1758 the grandson of Godwin Scudamore of English Bicknor and Mitcheldean (ABL [2]) by his wife Elizabeth Potter. They were descended from a younger branch of the Scudamores of Kentchurch that settled first at Thruxton, Herefordshire, in the 15th century, and lived afterwards for about 200 years at Huntsham in Goodrich in the same county. Richard Scudamore acquired by inheritance as well as by purchase several small holdings in the vicinity of Abenhall and Mitcheldean bordering on the Forest of Dean. In 1784 he married at Abenhall Sarah Nelmes and died in 1829 having had issue by her six sons and three daughters. In his will made two years before he died he leaves to his younger son GEORGE SCUDAMORE a legacy of £40 to be paid 12 months after his wife’s death with the proviso that should George predecease his mother, or not return to England (from whence he had emigrated to America eight years earlier) within three years after her death, then the legacy was to go to George’s nephew John, the son of his sister Ann Drinkwater.

ABL [12]. GEORGE SCUDAMORE, of Gallatin County, Illinois, (the 5th son of Richard Scudamore, of Abenhall, Gloucestershire, by his wife Sarah Nelmes) was baptized at Abenhall on 15 October 1797. He emigrated to America, together with his brothers Thomas and Philip, in 1819 embarking in the spring of that year. In 1820 George Scudamore was the head of a household in Bond County, Illinois, that included two males. His brother Philip was enumerated alone in Edwards County, Illinois. On 29 April 1823 he wrote from Gallatin County to his brother John, then living at Abenhall, to give him news of Thomas and Philip’s deaths from fever contracted while in Illinois. George was a farmer and cattle dealer and married on 20 October 1825 in Gallatin County Rebecca Ann (born 13 February 1800), a daughter of Warner and Barbara (Slusher) Buck. She survived him and married (her third husband) Thomas Hiram Moutry on 14 December 1842 in Hamilton County, Illinois. She died on 14 August 1892 aged 91 and was buried at Blooming Grove Cemetery in Hamilton County. She was previously the widow of Benjamin Ellis (whom she married on 30 March 1818 and by whom she had two sons, William Ellis, born 14 January 1819, and John Ellis, born 10 September 1821).
